

PROJECT FatherhoodSM

The most important gift you can give your child is you.

Join Project FatherhoodSM

Project FatherhoodSM of Children's Institute, Inc. was developed to give, urban, culturally diverse fathers an opportunity to connect with their children and play a more meaningful role in their lives.

MIRG LOCATIONS

Weekly Meetings

MONDAY

DOWNTOWN

Los Angeles Mission

KOREATOWN

Mid-Wilshire Campus

WEST HOLLYWOOD

The Village-Center

TUESDAY

DOWNTOWN

Homeboy Industries

ECHO PARK

Rosemont Elementary

SOUTH L.A.

Watts Center

WESTLAKE

Union Avenue Elementary

WEDNESDAY

DOWNTOWN

Homeboy Industries

ECHO PARK

Otis Booth Campus

LONG BEACH

Long Beach Center

THURSDAY

TORRANCE

Burton Green Campus

How Much Does It Cost?

All components of Project FatherhoodSM are free to participants.

Who Can Join?

Project FatherhoodSM is open to all low-income, high risk families located in and around communities served by CII and our partners.

What Does the Program Offer?

The program is conducted in both English and Spanish and provides fathers with a comprehensive range of services, including:

- Individual and Family Counseling
- Job Training
- Financial Literacy
- Healthy Marriage Workshops
- Parent-Child Enrichment Activities
- Legal Workshops and Consultations
- Employment Assistance

How You Can Join

If you are interested in Project FatherhoodSM and would like to join one of our weekly MIRG or Significant Others groups, please contact our Family Services & Support Center at (213) 385-5100, ext. 1121 to schedule an appointment.

Program Partners

Harriet Buhai Center for Family Law

Homeboy Industries

Jordan Downs Housing Development

National Latino Fatherhood and Family Institute

Weingart Center

children's institute, inc.

safe children, strong families, healthy communities