AB 109 Monthly Status Reports

This past October marked the conclusion of the first year of AB 109 in Los Angeles County. According to a recent report issued by the Countywide Criminal Justice Coordinating Committee (CCJCC), since the implementation of AB 109 in Los Angeles County over 11,000 individuals have been released to the supervision of the Probation Department. These formerly incarcerated individuals, known formally, as Postrelease Supervised Persons (PSP's), require not only supervision but effective rehabilitative services in order to successfully transition back into their communities.

The Board of Supervisors must maintain continuous oversight over all of the efforts related to AB 109. The Board has previously directed the CCJCC to issue monthly status reports on realignment. While these reports are helpful additives to support the Board's formulation of public policy, greater accountability requires input directly from the Chief Probation Officer.
